

Fall 2020 Update

Kirsten has been enjoying her maternity leave with her cutie PIE! We are happy to announce that she is returning to the office, with her first day back being October 20. We look forward to having her back, sharing her gifts and smiles with the MC Sask family! Kirsten has requested to come back at .5

time. As Regional Minister she will focus on youth/family programming, serve once a week as “Youth Minister on Campus” at RJC, and connect with supporters of the work of MC Sask and MC Canada.

MC Sask is excited to announce that Josh Wallace will move from Interim Church Engagement Minister to Church Engagement Minister. He will continue to connect with congregations, support the work of local and international ministries, and keep before us an Anabaptist perspective on the calling and mission of the church. He will serve at .3 time.

The Youth Farm Bible Camp’s newest attraction is the Tabernacle of Moses. This outdoor replica of the Tabernacle takes visitors back to the time of Moses and the Israelites wondering the desert. Guided tours are included in admission to the corn maze. Go to yfbcc.com to order tickets. Only 75 people are permitted to enter every hour. Last day is October 25.

Missing your coffee from TTV? Good news! We can get it for you!

International Witness

Five MC Sask congregations have already joined support networks building relationships with Witness workers and international partners in various ministries around the world. Contact Josh Wallace at churchengagement@mcsask.ca for more information on how your congregation can participate with International Witness. Transitions

Andrea Enns-Gooding was ordained to pastoral ministry at Zoar Mennonite Church on Sunday, August 23. The service can be viewed at www.mcsask.ca

Claire Ewert Fisher was commissioned as co-pastor at Mount Royal Mennonite Church on Sunday, September 13. Claire and Garth will be sharing one fulltime position.

Rodney Hennessey began as lead pastor at Grace Mennonite Church, Regina on October 1, 2020. An installation and credentialing service will follow.

MC Canada Study Conference 2020

Join our nationwide community of faith as we gather virtually for “Table Talk: Does the Church Still have Legs?” a virtual study conference on the nature and identity of the church and the role of worship. Plenary speakers from Mennonite Church Canada-affiliated universities and colleges will present on themes of ecclesiology and worship. For details and to register go to <https://www.mennonitechurch.ca/tabletalk2020>

Supporting the Work of MC Sask Here & Around the World

A portion of each donation to MC Sask supports the work we do together regionally, nationwide, and around the world. Donations can be made at www.mcsask.ca, via e-transfer to mcsask@mcsask.ca, or by cheque mailed to Mennonite Church Saskatchewan, 600-45th Street West, Saskatoon, SK, S7L 5W9.
